

tencia™

Tencia Connect

Tencia Connect can be regarded as the gateway for other applications to integrate with Tencia, it is designed to facilitate the exchange of information between applications. Tencia Connect is the facility used within Tencia to allow it to integrate with third party applications ensuring database security is maintained.

The Tencia Connect user interface is the mechanism that exposes services such as .Net assemblies, Web services and Windows Communications Foundation, or upload and download routines.

